

Posting For: City of London

Position: Geospatial Infrastructure Systems Analyst

Position Type: Permanent, Full-time

File #: 924

The Corporation of the City of London strives to foster a workplace in which all individuals maximize their potential, regardless of their differences. We are committed to attracting, engaging, developing and celebrating exceptional people in public service who are representative of our community.

Summary:

Reporting to the Manager, Geospatial Infrastructure Systems, Geomatics, the Geospatial Infrastructure Systems Analyst develops and/or assists with the implementation of business solutions in support of Corporate Geospatial Information Systems (GIS) and Computerized Maintenance Management Systems (CMMS) with responsibility for the project management and delivery of geospatial data creation, editing, management and analysis as well as the production of maps and a wide-range of geospatial related products.

Qualifications/Experience:

Completion of a four-year degree with a major in Geographics Information Systems, OR a three year degree or community college diploma combined with a one-year Certificate in Geographic Information Systems.

Three years of previous related experience.

Compensation/Other Information:

$56,455 - $81,677

This is a permanent, full-time position.

How to Apply:

For a complete job description and to apply on-line, please visit the City of London website at <https://careers.london.ca>

Closing Date for Applications: Monday, March 11, 2024.

We appreciate all applications, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

As an inclusive employer, we are committed to providing a fully accessible recruitment process. Please contact us at any time during the recruitment process and let us know what accessible supports you may need.

